FORGERY AND PIRACY

PARRY AND CO.

Beg to caution the public that the TRADE MARKS of many of the Firms they represent are PIRATED and by this means SPURIOUS and WORTHLESS goods are foisted on purchasers, instead of the GENUINE articles.

The SHAM labels are wonderfully well got up to fulfil their nefarious mission.

Some of them bear a forgery of manufacturer's signature, others have apocryphal signatures, one or two letters being altered in so artistic a manner as almost to defy detection. Whilst many bear NO NAME whatever, but in general appearance closely resemble the authentic labels.

We have taken LEGAL PEOCEEDINGS, and trust that the heavy penalties accorded under the Trade Mark Law will put a stop to FORGERY and PIRACY

The following particulars may prevent many from being duped by dishonest dealers as they will enable the purchaser to detect imitations, and insist on obtaining the genuine articles—

Crosse and Blackwell. Pickles

See that the well known white and gold arched top label bearing their name and address (21 Soho-Square, London) is on the bottle, and also look for the name and address on top and signature on side of capsule, without none are genuine.

JAMS and JELLIES of this famous brand also bear C and B.'s name on labe's.

FRENCH CAPERS. Legitimate only when C. & B.'s name and address is found on label and capsule; avoid similar bottles which bear NO NAME on label or capsule.

Arthur Guinness Son & Co.'s Extra Stout

BEWARE of a very well executed and most dangerous imitation of the famous HARP LABEL. This even bears a FORGERY of GUINNESS' SIGNATURE as well as PIRACY of the TRADE-MARK.

PIG BRAND STOUT

None is legitimate without the signature of the proprietors (Messrs William Edmonds Jr & Co.) on capsule, their label on side and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on neck of Bottle.

Bull Dog, bottling of Bass & Co.'s Pale Ale

Genuine only when the bottle bears Messrs BASS & Co.'s world renowned RED TRIANGLE trade label on one side, Messrs. READ BROS.'S BULL DOG LABEL on the other and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS on the neck.

Washington Morton and Alfred Morton & Co.'s

Celebrated WINES & FINE CHAMPAGNE BRANDIES. Every bottle of the genuine bears their name on capsule, cork and label, and our signature as SOLE AGENTS at foot of the latter.

Rimmel's Brown Windsor Soap

Each cake of the genuine has the maker's name moulded on one side and the words SOLE AGENTS PARRY & Co. Buenos Aires, on the other.

Lea and Perrins Sauce

The label on EVERY bottle of the genuine WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE bears the signature LEA & PERRINS and OUR name amongst the list of WHOLE SALE AGENTS.

Colman's Mustard, Corn Flour Blue, Starch

None of these are genuine unless they bear the BULLS HEAD Trade Mark. Inferior goods packed and labelled in a manner calculated to deceive, are freely offered in the most shameless manner. Ask for and see that you get J & J COLMAN'S genuine productions which all bear their name, Trade Mark BULL'S HEAD and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS for this Republic.

Angostura Bitters

The market is INUNDATED with immitations, which are WORTHLESS and INJURIOUS. Every bottle of the genuine article bears on the neck our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS,

Epps's Breakfast Cocoa and Chocolate

Every packet of the legitimate article bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Eugene Clicquot's Champagne

Each bottle of this renowned brand bears the registered trade label of the proprietor and our SIGNATURE LABEL AS SOLE AGENTS.

Old Tom Gin

Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S celebrated cordial bears their signature label and our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Invalid Port

GREAT ATTENTION and care have been dedicated by Messrs BOORD & SON to this SPECIALITY, and we can confidently recommend it.

Fine Pale Sherry

Every bottle of BOORD & SON'S well know white label bears also our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS. As an agreeable light ECONOMICAL dinner wine, it is not to be excelled.

Lorne Whisky

Has an enviable reputation all over the world: every bottle of this PURE HIGHLAND WHISKY bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Red Heart Rum

Justly celebrated for its great age, purity and other excellent qualities and specially recommended as a preventive for CHOLERA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, COLD &tc. is genuine only when capsules are stamped and the corks branded HENRY WHITE & Co. and when each bottle bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS above the Red Heart label.

Real Hollands Pig Brand

Imported by us and guaranteed of superior quality. Each bottle bears our guarantee RED AND WHITE label.

Keiller's Lozenges, Drops and Confectionery

So justly appreciated here, bear on every tin, packet, bottle, &c our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Borwick's Baking Powder

Every packet or drum bears our SPECIAL LABEL as SOLE AGENTS.

Sublime Tuscany Olive Oil

SAMUEL RAE & CO, LEGHORN. This famous brand is guaranteed a PURE article every bottle and tin bears our RED and WHITE guarantee label.

Nelson's Improved Brilliant Gelatine

A superior and economical preparation for jellies, blanc mange, soups, gravies, &c. Jellies made with the greatest facility in a few minutes possessing the whole of the nutriment without the impurities of the calvesfeet. Each genuine packet bears the signature of GEORGE NELSON and our RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Bumsted's Royal British Table Salt

This refined article is obtained from natural and pure brine springs and is vastly superior to the ordinary quality. Each bottle bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label in the CENTRE of that of the manufacturer.

Anglo Bavarian Ale

VIENNA 1873, FIRST CLASS PRIZE. GOLD MEDAL PARIS, 1878. To those accustomed to drink GERMAN ALE we strongly recommend this light and pleasant beverage.

Champagne Cider,

HENLEY & SON'S celebrated brand. Each bottle bears the RED AND WHITE guarantee label as SOLE AGENTS.

Tea.

We guarantee all our brands PURE and of the VERY BEST QUALITY, and caution the public against receiving any boxes that have been OPENED and the LEADS CUT, as we know that our empty packages are REFILLED WITH INFERIOR MIXTURES and offered for sale as genuine. Each box bears our RED AND WHITE guarantee label.

Attention.

Notwithstanding the HEAVY PENALTIES inflicted by the Trade Mark Law, individuals will persist in FORGING the signatures and IMITATING the Trade Marks of CELEBRATED AND WELL-KNOWN manufacturers NON-RESIDENT in this country, whilst they are very chary and frightened of doing so in the case of a firm living on the spot. We therefore strongly advise the public to take the goods for which we are Agents ONLY when they bear OUR LABELS.

Associated Press Telegrams

(HAVAS' AGENCY)

Paris, 29th (via Malta.)

Telegrams from St. Petersburg announce another Nihilist attempt on the Emperor's life. The Winter Palace was mined under the dining hall. An accident delayed the Emperor's arrival, so the Imperial family did not meet for dinner at the usual hour, so all escaped the explosion.

That side of the Palace destroyed and 35 servants wounded.

Tremendous excitement in St. Petersburg, and the police straining every nerve to catch the criminals.

A NEW RECONCILIATION.

To group together all the salient features of the late political pampero within the measure of a short newspaper article is a self-imposed task of no ordinary difficulty; and, whilst the strict neutrality of our columns almost enjoins silence, the consciousness of the surpassing importance of so great a subject commands its fullest discussion.

We have witnessed and we have closed one of the most anxious, most critical, and—shall we say it?—the most creditable periods in the history of this Republic: creditable alike to the President of the Nation and the Governor of the Province as to the very citizens who provoked the difficulty and the honorable men who laboured so hard and successfully to bring about its settlement—and we emerge from the cloud radiant with the triumph of principle, of patriotism, and of common sense. In all the political frenzy which brigaded in our streets the sons of our best families and even marshalled the patricians themselves with walking sticks to show their approval, the fundamental principles of our Government were never lost sight of, and the inflexibility of the Government was only equalled by that of the Tiro Nacional, men who have proved beyond all cavil that the principles of freedom hold as solid a footing amongst us as the very Argentine Institutions which looked in jeopardy for the moment.

In no other land that we know of could a people have been brought so near to a cataclysm and yet so instantaneously escape the danger. Our politics can only be compared to our weather; and, as at times a sudden dark cloud emerges from the horizon and passes off without the storm which it is presumed to presage, so also Sunday's affair could only occur in this remarkable country and pass off without bloodshed. The peculiarity of the national character has stamped its singular and honorable features on the demonstration, which is so remarkable for its moderation and the evidence it affords of the inherent strength of a really civilized age.

South America is looked upon by Europeans as the home of revolution; but the people of Buenos Ayres have indeed become unaccustomed to revolution when the affair on Sunday passed off as quietly as a temperance procession in Glasgow, or a firemen's turn-out in New York. Had there been the slightest wish on the part of the people to get up a revolution, Sunday was the opportunity. With the exception of a couple of hundred men at the National Government House, the city was completely in the hands of the Bomberos, Vigilantes and Tiro Nacional; half a dozen of barricades in the streets, with a few pickets of riflemen on the adjoining azoteas, and not a trooper of the line would have entered the town until General Roca had resigned. Nor do we think that in the ranks of the Tiro Nacional there were wanting men to see the opportunity; but their own good sense of what was right, their own inherent respect for the Institutions which they and their fathers framed, their own love for their native land which is bounding to the highest ranks of national greatness, taught them to leave the adjustment of the question in the hands of Governor Tejedor, in whom all had the greatest (and we may add well-merited) confidence.

Sunday's business put this country to a far sharper test than even a war with Chile: and let Chilians well study the question, since in it are the germs of a future foreign policy it would be difficult to overlook. When a miserable question of crudos and cocidos amongst ourselves turns out a volunteer column such as we witnessed in Calle Florida, what, may we ask, would be the demonstration it the drums beat to arms to fight the Chilians?

It was, we believe, beneath the shadow of the Belgrano Statue that the last great reconciliation of parties, the Alsinista and Mitrista, took place. The ashes of the great San Martin are now on the way out to this country, and soon Roquista and Tejedorista will be invited to receive the bones of the Washington of the Plate. Let this then be the occasion for a new reconciliation of parties; and in the Plaza Retiro, and beneath the shadow of San Martin's Statue, let Argentines of every political shade shake hands and make friends. May we ask our colleagues of every party to join us in our appeal—to hoist the flag of brotherly union in a moment so solemn. Two hands pledged in friendship is the nation's monogram, not two swords crossed or two Remingtons aimed at each other. Let Argentines prove as true to the National monogram as they did on Sunday to their Institutions, and the spirit that fired them to assert their rights will find more genial channels to advance, support and aggrandize their splendid country.

THE PEACE CONVENTION.

The following are the telegrams exchanged between the Peace Committee and General Roca. It will be seen that the General has not the least intention of resigning his candidature for the Presidential Chair:

Buenos Aires, Feb. 15th

To General Roca,

In the name of the Committee named by many respectable citizens yesterday, we beg you, in the name of Peace, to utter the one word which can save this city from a bloody scandal and the country from the abyss of civil war. By doing so you will secure the gratitude of the country and a halo of glory for your name. Do! Without an instant's loss of time send us this one word by telegram.

Believing that you are fully capable of this act of patriotic abnegation, we trust you will resign your candidature for the Presidency.

We infer that you are aware of Dr Tejedor's resignation.

Felix Frias, Pres. Peace Com.
Eduardo Madero, Sec.

To Dn Felix Frias

If patriotic exigencies really demanded my resignation, it would cost me very little indeed to sacrifice my ambition; but, with the utmost respect for Mr Frias and the other members of the Committee, I humbly hold the opinion that patriotism points in the other direction.

My resignation would be an imposition on the public vote, and an insult to the dignity and sovereignty of the Argentine people, a denial of the most sacred rights of the citizens, and, on my part, treason to my party and the other sections of opinion that have espoused my cause.

Furthermore, I am by no means disposed, by a cowardly retreat, to justify the attitude of my political adversaries, who, impotent within the domain of the law, have risen in arms against the supreme authority in the nation, attributing their defeat to the latter instead of to their own mistakes.

At this moment I can hear nothing but an unanimous cry from every corner of the Republic for Order, obedience to the Law, and respect to the General Government (without which it is utterly impossible for us to exist as an organised nation) on the part of those who have overstepped the limits of justice and honesty.

I am not my own master in the present state of things, as I owe duty to the political party which, availing of its rights, and inspired by the purest impulses of patriotism, has Directing Centres all over the republic, and it is to these that you must address all demands for my resignation, supplying another candidate who must be provided beforehand with the exequatur of the Governor of Buenos Ayres, the only one who threatens us with the horrors of cival war and the destruction of our fundamental Charter, rather than submit to the sentence of the only legal judge in the case—the voters.

The political centres referred to can alone absolve me from the obligations I have contracted with the party that has proclaimed me its candidate for the Presidency of the Republic.

I salute the President of the Peace Committee.

Julio A. Roca.

Rosario, Feb. 18th

To Generel Roca,

The political centre over which I preside has just heard of your answer to the Peace Committee, and, approving of it in every way, requests me to inform you that it expects you will fulfil the obligations you contracted when you accepted the candidature, which this centre will steadily persist in supporting, no matter what the result may be at the polls in April, as it considers that the Constitutional autonomy of the Provinces and the dignity and peace of the Nation are bound up with your cause.

Peter B. Arias, Pres:
G. Carrasco,
V. Carnicero, Secs.
O. Gonzales,

PETITION FOR A CAUCUS.

B. Ayres, Feb. 17, 1880.

In 1877, when the electoral campaign opened, we proposed, as a patriotic solution of the question, that Provincial conventions, strangers to all official influence, should be convoked, and submitted to national scrutiny, in order to name the candidate for President of the Republic.

This was the most adequate measure to sound public opinion and raise a government on that basis. All parties and all legitimate aspirations could be embodied in these conventions. Unfortunately our proposal fell through, and we will not investigate the causes at this moment.

Events have been hurrying on which have roused angry feelings, and the country is quickly entering a situation which threatens both organization and order, and may soon precipitate it into the misfortunes of civil war.

The measures proposed up to the present to meet these dangers have not been successful, and offer difficulties which smother the most generous impulses.

We think it is yet opportune to convoke a convention. It is an appeal to public opinion, and all parties can meet and uphold their ideas. Many may question the possibility of organizing free conventions; but an insight into the system will remove the doubt. The convention shall comprise citizens who have held public offices, who have posts independent of official influence, and all those whose antecedents and respective professions give a guarantee of a free will.

Official co-action is impossible in an assembly composed of men of scientific or commercial position, of those who are or have been public men, and of those who, having once deserved the vote of their fellow-citizens for public positions, now assemble to represent the popular trust and sentiment.

The proposal may be thought inopportune, but it is never too late to make an effort towards averting the evils of a situation, which may end God only knows where.

The system we propose offers free access to all parties, who may name the men of their preference; but the candidates named must guarantee their submission to the decision of the National Convention.

As members of the Provisional Committee of the Club La Paz, we address you, gentlemen, proposing the adoption of this scheme, which we would second with all our efforts.

Although our proposal was rejected last year, and in the present emergency we have uttered the name of a citizen, we declare that if this scheme is carried out we will uphold that name and loyally submit to the decision of those assemblies.

The peace, the credit and the institutions of the country are imperilled—perhaps the national organization is threatened—after half a century's labour and sacrifice. The territorial interests of the nation are imperilled, already compromised, in an international question. We think it is a duty to do whatever we can to avert these perils and secure concord and peace.

Hereby we will also influence all to lay down their arms, which should be kept to defend the integrity and honor of the country.

Should you find this proposal acceptable, we are ready to explain our views in a conference, and therein we may agree on all objections raised.

We herewith include the bases of a project of conventions.

We salute you with our most distinguished consideration.

THE HELPER RAILWAY.

We give to our readers the following correspondence respecting one of the most extravagant railway schemes ever mooted, and our object in publishing these letters is less to notice the enterprize of which they treat, than the expressed views of Dr. Jose Francisco Lopez, one of our profoundest thinkers. The political idolatry of which Dr Lopez speaks is in truth our social cancer, and any paper from the Dr on this topic, no matter in what dialect, merits the closest reading:—

2647 Morgan St., St. Louis,
Missouri, Dec 1st '79.

Hon. Jose Francisco Lopez,
42 Calle San Martin, B. Ayres.

My dear Sir,

Permit me to request your very thoughtful attention to the enclosed copy of a communication which I addressed on the 1st ult. to His Excellency, the secretary of State of the Argentine Republic, briefly explaining my proposition for the early construction of a longitudinal double-track steel railway through North, Central and South America. In behalf of the colossal undertaking thus projected, I beg leave to bespeak your friendly and enthusiastic co-operation.

A few weeks hence I shall go to New York, temporarily, and from there will have the pleasure of sending to you a copy of my new book, entitled "Oddments of Andean Diplomacy," in which, among other matters, my views on the proposed international and intercontinental railway are, for the present, as I trust, sufficiently set forth.

I remain, dear Sir, with sincere esteem, very truly,

Your friend,

H. R. Helper.

B. Ayres, February 5th, 1880.

Mr. Hinton R. Helper,

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of 1st December enclosing a copy of your communication to the Argengentine Government, about your 'Oddments of Andean Diplomacy,' and project of a longitudinal Railway from Hudson's Bay to the Magellan Straits.

Your request for my cooperation here I shall be very happy to comply with. You are right in addressing yourself to the Government to secure the right of priority for your project, for which purpose I will publish your letters referring to the same. I am not afraid that any competitor may offer himself. The scheme is of such colossal magnitude that it will take much time and labour to convince South American people of its feasibility.

As to the United States people who have achieved the longest railway line of the world, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, connecting both Oceans as the natural arms of the American Republic, your scheme is only a matter of time. The States have grown up in the battle with nature, grappling and overcoming the greatest difficulties in every kind of industries, discoveries and creations. This is the vocation and mission of the American people. They are at the same time the prophets of marvels and the accomplishers, thus drawing the future into the present, and anticipating the life, wealth and comfort of many centuries in one. Such is the originality of creative power and the undaunted spirit of this race.

The continental unity of America can only be realized by the commercial unity of railway arteries pervading the whole body. The States will then provide the Spanish American continent with their industrial life and their rational spirit soaring only in the high regions of local self-government and national manhood. These invigorating and regenerating regions have been inaccessible to South America, entangled or enslaved by her historical paganism of political idolatry of persons and dead forms, raised above principles, truth and society. She was brought up in the political worship of persons. They are the ruling power, and consequently the ruling anarchy. Institutions are framed by them and managed by them like machinery or decorations for the political performance of the engaged troupe under the direction of the 'empresario,' without any control of society, a mere passive spectator of quarrels and smashes for which it has to pay. Only a close intercourse of the Americans with the South American Republics will teach them that the working institutions are not the mere working machinery of official performance, managed by Governors or private undertakers called 'caudillos' (empresarios de politica) like any private engine of a workshop; the very life and body of working communities is acting by their spirit of public good, impossible without public popular bodies; and this working activity of citizens organised in communities with self-government, self-body, and self-life, which natural fruit is the rule of law and liberty, cannot be obtained without the constant labour of these communities and citizens, nor supplied by laziness and public indifference, muffled with the mummery of mere artificial forms, symphonies of patriotism and constitutional rhetoric. Stagnation will ever produce physical or political epidemics. No man or no people will ever produce a sound fruit in the field of Nature or of Society without working and cultivating the same with the sweat of his brow. The sentence of the Bible holds always good for the bread of man and for the bread of the people, which is Liberty. When they are lazy and indifferent to Right and Truth, they have no bread at all, but their own political servitude. They are the free slaves of their pretenders or gamblers, and they toil, fight and bleed, never for a principle, but only for persons and personal causes, which is the Alpha and Omega of all South American political squabbles. This is the synthesis of the history and the philosophy of the history of South America, with very few exceptions. The chronic disease is the chronic lie, mixed up like a poison, masked with the name of public good in theory, and producing public misery in practice. The frame is wrong like its working, and its management is only intended to suit personal interests as a private machinery, and not the welfare of society, as the life and free body of Communities, which do not exist at all, not even the most rudimental of Municipal institutions. How are the political ones possible without their living roots? Who is the man and who are the people to change and invert the course and laws of nature? And still there are parties interested in preserving this primitive and disastrous state of things. It secures for them the industrial monopoly of political manufacture of electoral masses, which are corrupted and manufactured by the manufacturer as 'materia prima,' submitting the people to one of the rival firms, and winding up such rivalry in social distress and chronic exhaustion.

The Peninsula of the North being connected by railways with the Mexican frontier, it is to be expected that the principal work will start from there—the Isthmus of Panama—winding through the Central Republics and Bolivia, to the Argentine frontier of Jujuy are reached. Congress has already sanctioned the law for the extension of the railway from Tucuman till the said frontier, and in a few years it will be completed, thus securing for us the commerce of Bolivia. The Southern Railway of B. Ayres is already working as far as Azul, some 300 miles southwards, in the direction of the Magellan Straits.

The $ f.5,000 offered and deposited by you as a price for the best 'Essay' on the subject will, no doubt, encourage the practical study of such an interesting scheme for the community of traffic and commercial intercourse of the whole continental body of America. A new life, new interests, closer commercial and international connections in the whole family of American States will arise when they are linked into one body by the arteries of the projected longitudinal railway; a new world of products for American manufactures, and a new world of markets for American merchandize will be opened. Flourishing commercial towns and staple places will spring up along the continental line. In half a century the American Republic will have, instead of its actual population of 40 millions, 120 millions. The way is open and prepared for American colonies, bringing to the south continent the benefits and blessings of a race which bears in its blood and spirit the living germ of labour and liberty.

Wishing you every success in your scheme,

I remain, yours sincerely,

Jose Francisco Lopez.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Our Packet Edition for the Pacific Company's mail steamer Cordillera, which will sail on Sunday next, will be published to-morrow morning.

The principal 'novedad' yesterday was General Roca's telegram to the Peace Committee, refusing to resign. Many people hope that his friend General Campos will succeed in inducing him to do so. In the city there was nothing new, except the Peace meeting in Plaza Victoria. There were more people in the streets than for many days past, and the shops appeared to be doing a trifle more business; still, Buenos Ayres has not yet recovered its normal tone.

We give in another column the proposal of the Irigoyen party to hold Provincial Conventions to ascertain what candidates the people really wish to support at the coming elections. The proposal is a fair and good one. All sorts of rumours about new candidates etc are flying about in scores. Would that the month of April next were come and gone. It will not surprise us to find soon the hair of every man in Buenos Ayres, young and old, as grey as a badger's from the intense political anxiety prevailing.

The Rural Society has postponed the day for applying for space at the coming Cattle Show till next Sunday week, 29th inst. We hear that the greatest curiosity at the Show will be two bulls bred in Salta which are now on their way down: they are wee little fellows, very like the Kerry breed, and the worthy Saltaños are under the impression that they will beat all there competitors. The Flower Show people have also postponed their opening day till the 29th, a very lucky day, being the fifth Sunday of Feburary, a number of Sabbaths which is found in this month only once in every 300 years, so the present generation had better make the most of the day in question, as nothing short of the discovery of the Elixir of Life can enable them to see such a date again.

The Cordoba papers report that Eolus opened his cave just as Carnival was coming to a close on Tuesday week and scattered the mummers and masqueraders right and left, amid a cloud of dust that nearly suffocated the whole of them. The balls had to be suspended.

The Supreme Federal Court gave judgment on Monday in the Skating Rink case on appeal. The decision of the Courts below is confirmed, which means the closing of the Rink for skating purposes, and the payment of 500 pats fine and all the costs by its proprietors. The Coliseum will, therefore, have a monopoly of the Skating business next winter.

The receipts of the Water Works Board during the month of January were 1,200,000$ m/c.

The suggestion of our Carmen de Areco correspondent, in yesterday's issue, of a system of public subscription to raise a fund to offer rewards for the apprehension of murderers in the camp is a very practical one, and might have a very good effect if carried out. There seems to be, however, an objection in this country to rewards being put on murderers' heads, although nearly all the civilized Governments in the world adopt the system and find it to answer.

It was announced yesterday that our lately deceased colleague, El Combate, is to come to life again. Don Mariano Varela will edit it, as before.

The medical students of the city are now getting up a Tiro Corps. We thought all the row and rub-dub-a-dub work was over: besides, these young gentlemen should remember that curing not killing is their intended trade, though an ungrateful public admits that doctors sometimes kill as well as cure.

Carnival, it appears, was very gay at Mercedes in this province. The greatest hit in the way of dress at the ball there was made by Miss Casstila, who appeared as the Comet, her hair covered with silver powder, a white corsage and a long green train covered with golden stars. A pretty conceit.

Nobody seems to know whether the Municipality intend to allow Carnival to be decently buried on Sunday and the usual masquerade balls. There are thousands of people who think far more of this highly important question than of the political rumpus. Such is life, especially B. Ayrean life.

The two Y.F. cases on board the Cordillera are reported all right and able to eat two pounds of beefsteak for breakfast: if so, the public need have no further anxiety about them.

We intend to publish to-morrow a highly interesting letter from Mr Calvo, emigration agent of this republic in Europe, in which he advocates a large Irish exodus to this country as a permanent cure for much of the distress now existing there, and proposes that the National Government shall sell land very cheap to the new comers. Just the scheme we broached a month ago, with the difference that we prefer free grants of land for the new comers.

The River Parana has not been so high for two years past. At Paso de la Patria and other places the dwellers along the banks have fled to the high grounds, fearing an overflow.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the birth of the King of Holland, and all the Legations and Consulates flew their flags, and the Once Battery fired the usual salute. A Dutch subscriber informs us that there is a probability of an interesting event that may give an heir to the Dutch Throne and save Prince Bismarck a deal of unnecessary trouble.

We have received a most interesting letter from a lady who recently visited Professor Edison's Electric Light laboratory. She mentions one extremely significant fact, viz, that the price of Electric Light Scrip has risen from 25 to 3,000!!! Such a rise as this is enough to make the tamest Bull mad from joy.

The police at Paso los Libres have recently done their duty properly by shooting down a murderer who was trying to escape across the Uruguay after killing two peaceable and industrious neighbours named Vallejos, brothers, the object being robbery.

The announcement that several officers of the Banda Oriental Army have been dismissed the service for being 'absent without leave' (desertion in fact) may be taken as a sign of the times on that side of the river. Some people say that things are not what they seem over there.

The recent prodigious hubbub about irregular sales of Public Lands has ended in smoke, i.e., a severe reprimand to the head of the office, with injunction to be more careful in future. The Mountain and the Mouse again.

The so called mutiny at the Capitania the other night turns out to be as we said, a drunken brawl. All the tars engaged in it have surrendered to the authorities and begged for pardon, on the ground that they were 'three sheets in the wind' on the occasion and did not know what they were doing.

A colleague announces that many of the river saladeros, Argentine and Oriental, have been forced to stop work owing to the monstrously high prices asked for cattle by estancieros, Monsenor Manetti, the Pope's Delegate, is at present in quarantine on Flores Island and will not arrive here till next week.

The peace news was received in Rosario with great jubilee. At the Plaza del Sud all the tables in the neighbourhood were brought into the open air, and there was a general beer jollification in honour of the event.

The Montevidean papers report that a man named Patrick Whellon (Whelan?) went furiously mad in the hospital there last week and had to be tied down.

There was a decided push to create a reaction in the market on the back of the Roca reply; to a certain extent the bulls succeeded and created such an atmosphere of doubt that nervous people could hardly read the figures on the black board, but the solidity of the market can be gathered from the mere 5 cents rise which the whole push resulted in. The sales to-day reached over a million, and we have now over three million pats. bought and sold on the strength of politics within the last 3 days. Spite, however, of bulletins, telegrams and cuartel rumours, the head men on 'Change knew well that the Provincial and National Governments are working together and that there is no longer the least danger of a rupture. Dr. Rawson was greatly spoken of to-day as the future candidate. Gold opened at 31.25 and closed at 31.35, being 5 cents over yesterday's closing rate.

Cedulas keep rising and were done to-day at 83½. Treasury Bills closed at 76, but were done at afterhours at 75¾. Roads and Bridges one party sold out to-day on the strength of the Roca telegram at 76. National Bank Shares a trifle better at 59¾.

Exchange one transaction at 50½; francs very freely offered; no takers for all the francs offered.

The news from London, as will be seen by our telegram, reports the London auction and market rising, whilst messages from the U. States gives hides down. See telegram.

Mr Scharffenorth reports the Denderah to sail from Montevideo for Chile on Sunday.

At the Montevidean Telegraph Office to-day there was a most unusual sight, large furniture vans filled to the utmost with strong heavy provincial ponchos; the carts were loaded from the house where the Telegraph Co. is, and many parties interviewed Mr Furze to know the full import of the business. At the street corner a policeman with a rifle was posted; the cartmen with the ponchos stated they were going to a tienda in Calle Defensa; the matter gave rise to much comment.

The great news on 'Change this morning at the opening of the ring was the Roca telegram to Messrs Frias and Madero of the Peace Committee; it will be found in another column, and its import was sufficiently well-known on 'Change yesterday to check any great speculation on the telegram to-day. Genl. Roca's answer is far more the answer of the Upper Provinces, the answer of his party and his clubs than the General's own individual reply. Patriotism, to our view, certainly demanded that the General should withdraw. Had this reply reached the city last Sunday morning, it is barely possible that the patriotism and the patience of the 'Tiro Nacional' party would have been put to a still greater test, but coming as it does now, it can neither alter opinions formed nor endanger arrangements concluded; we all knew that great pressure would be brought to bear on Roca to stand fast and refuse to resign. Had he, however, in the presence of the great danger that threatened the country, resigned, in all human probability public opinion would have been so won by such patriotic conduct that, nolens volens, when the electors formed council his name would head the list. As the matter now stands the odds are certainly in favor of either Dr. Tejedor or Gen. Sarmiento, who have gained immense popularity by their conduct in the struggle. We hear on tolerably good authority that the great provincial majority supposed to be held by Governor Tejedor no longer exists. Dr del Valle's and Mr Sarmiento's trip to the interior have not been without results, and Gen. Roca's resignation which was so much desired, may be an unnecessary formality in the new phase of Argentine political affairs; he goes on his trial now before the country, by all means let him take his chance; the verdict may prove totally contrary to his expectations, and those of his pledged and compromised party.

It is pleasant to think that our views etc., on the recent great political crisis have met with an almost unanimous approval from the foreign merchants, and as we were unable to meet the demand for papers, we may state that our Packet Edition on Saturday morning will contain all that we have written on the subject, one of the most difficult of all for a foreigner and public writer. But it seems we luckily hit the "juste milieux". We wrote with Ovid in medio ibis tutissimus.

Circulars were given round to-day signed by Mr H A Green, announcing his appointment as agent of The Marine Insurance Co. London. Mr Green holds power to arrange all claims for losses here without recurring to London.

Our special Boca reporter tried to describe to as this morning the state of the Boca in the way of peaches; the whole place is enveloped in peaches; wheelbarrows full for a paper dollar considered a good sale. Such an accumulation of the most delicious fruit was never before seen at the Boca, two paper dollars per cuartilla for large picked splendid peaches, and yet no demond can reach the supply. These peaches are worth to-day in London 2s 6d each; will no one extricate the Boca from ith peach dilemma; why do not the Italians of the Boca start a dozen of stills and make peach brandy, or do as the Americans, can the peaches.

Messrs Godfrey Huss & Co.'s live cattle circular in both English and Spanish was given round to-day. Mr Huss tells us that he has so many subscribers in England he has been obliged to publish it half English half Spanish; its data will be found most interesting.

Twelve new mines have been denounced in the Banda Oriental; nothing is more extraordinary than the number of mines discovered in that country, and the little gold or silver or copper produced.

In the lawsuit pending between Hansen and the Liebig Company, a species of ejectment suit, the Courts have decided in favor of Mr Croker, the talented manager of the Liebig Company.

The little steamer Resguardo has sailed from Rosario to see and get the balandra Concepcion that foundered at San Lorenzo afloat.

A very fine piece of country on the upper Uruguay has just been measured by order of the Brazilian Government for the purpose of starting a colony there; the position could not be more favorable, on the Brazilian frontier and the river; the more colonies in the Plate the better. Last night's Siglo publishes a most interesting letter from Mr Calvo, which we hold for to-morrow. Mr Calvo hit upon precisely the relief plan for Irish distress that was proposed to Gov. Tejedor some months ago, and which if properly carried out would be the most effectual of all relief to the West of Ireland.

Our special Boca reporter under this day's date gives the following:—

"Great indignation felt among residents here, owing to the scandalous manner in which the trains have been running for the last few days. The arrivals and departures are never to time, and one is often 35 minutes doing the distance from Boca to town, owing to various shuntings and waiting for trains at General Brown Station.

"General ticket-holders have asked for monthly passes on the tramway, which hitherto have been refused, but which I should advise Mr Villafañe to consider well, as I think by this means he could reap a great benefit to the Company, by acceding to the general wish, and issuing Monthly Tickets on his line.

In saladero circles the news is that some of the Montevidean saladeros have been stopped owing to the too high prices of cattle; hides have fallen in Europe and estancieros must therefore give way in their pretensions.

The sale of a large lot of wool from the Montevidean deposits, close on 20,000 ar. at 4 20, is spoken of; both here and in Montevideo the wools in deposits are rapidly moving off.

Within the last few days we have had heavy arrivals at the Boca of quebracho wood from the Chaco, and every species of country produce; the arrivals coastwise are so large that they show the rapidly growing industry of the back country.

The meeting called for to-day at the Bolsa was postponed. People's minds are too full of other matters to take up the new Bolsa Reglamento and discuss it with the calmness necessary. It is, however, most strange that during the recent political excitement the Bolsa called no meeting or took no action to bring about peace.

The s.s. Bourgogne, which sailed yesterday with the French mails, took 200 passengers and full cargo. The La France that sailed from here 18th January arrived at Marseilles on 14th February, splendid run, and the Savoie, same line, sailed on that day from Marseilles with 600 passengers for the Plate. The cry is still they come.

WHEREAS the General Manager of the Mercantile Bank John M. Macalaster, has brought an action at law against me, the undersigned, complaining that on the 18th of November of last year soon after noon, in the Calle Piedad between Reconquista and San Martin, I struck him in his face with my fist, and whereas in his complaint against me he tells the Judge (1) that I struck him without provocation, and (2) that he was unable to strike me again in consequence of my immediate disappearance: therefore I earnestly request any of the bystanders who witnessed what occurred on that occasion to come forward and testify to the falsehood of the two latter assertions.

Copy of Analysis by Professor Kyle.

National College, Buenos Ayres, November 29th 1879.

Messrs. M. Forrester & Co., Buenos Ayres.

Gentlemen—I haveat your request made a careful examination of he sample of JEYES'S SHEEP DIP you handed to me on the 18th inst. I find it to be a well made preparation of Phenols and other Tar products, combined with soap, retaining the liquid form and easily mixible with water, from which it does not afterwards separate.

The proportion of active ingredients amounts to rather over 80 per cent. it is free from Mineral Poisons and from Caustic Alkalies. In my opinion it is well worth the attention of Sheepfarmers, and will be found by them to be convenient, safe, and I do not doubt, very efficacious as a Sheep Dip. From the readiness with which the preparation can be mixed with cold water it ought to prove most acceptable as a domestic disinfectant, being more convenient than crude Carbolic Acid or the disinfectant powders so frequently employed.

I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

JOHN J. J. KYLE, Professor of Chemistry.

Extracts from Testimonials

From Mr. Alex. Stewart, Bailiff to H. D. Pochin, Esq. Roduent Hall, Wales—

"The Sheep Dip is the best that I have ever used. I have not seen a single Maggot on any of the Sheep since we used it. The wool looks beautiful, and to all appearance improved in quality. I feel satisfied it will be an invaluable boon to our large Sheepfarmers in the Colonies, and it only wants to be appreciated."
